SOUTHERN MANUFACTURES.

It seems that manufactures at Richmond have received quite an impetus. Southern orders are pouring in upon the Richmond manufacturers from almost every point .-

The Dispatch says: "Many of our manufacturers are receiving large orders from the South for such arti- Virginia, the President, Directors, and Company cles as were heretofore purchased from the of the Farmers' Bank of Virginia, the Bank of North, thus showing that slaveholders are at the Old Dominion, James H. The defendants, engines now at work on the sugar plantations in Louisiana, were made in Richmond, and are said to surpass those from the New England factories, in their immediate vicini- and the rules of this Court, and it appearing by ty. But machinery is not the only kind of affidavit that they are not residents of this Statework Richmond manufacturers are getting up for the South. Some of the saddle and harness makers are filling large orders for Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi; and our shoemakers are furnishing brogues for the field hands on the cotton plantations .-When the Chester factory is establishedand capitalists should have it in operation at once not only the farmers of Virginia, but these of North Carolina and Tennessee. can then draw their supplies from the Old Dominion, instead of dealing with those Lynn manufacturers."

COURTESY OF THE PRESS .- However unnatize in sentiment or opinion, yet there is nothing which so elevates men of all vocations in the public estimation, and gives evidence of and kind bearing towards each other.

It is due to every man, in the absence of positive evidence to the contrary, to concede to him the same honesty in the opinions which he holds, and the same integrity of for ourselves. A different course is disingenuous, and is sure to produce ascerbity or illfeeling. Of all vocations, the public has a greater right, if possible, to demand this course from the managers of the press. They promoters of the public peace and of sound

Bitterness, invective, harshness or severity ought to be carefully avoided, therefore, by the press. Perhaps their vocation more than any other, renders them peculiarly liable to altercations and differences, and yet we are glad to admit, that as a general rule, they are

ly during political campaigns, when this safe

We fear the campaign of 1860 will be an Teigh Spirit.

LIBERAL BEQUESTS .- Michael Allen, a native of Ireland, but for many years a resident of Pittsburg, Pa., died there in 1851, lowing bequests announced: The General Assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States, $10,000; Board of Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States, $1,000; Foreign Evangelical Society, New York, $3,000; Board of Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States of America, $5,000, Board of Education of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States of America, $3,000: Presbyterian Board of Publication, $3,000; American Bible Society, $6,000; American Tract Society, $4000; American Sunday School Union, located in Philadelphia, $4,000.

OFFERING HINSELF AS A SACRIFICE.—It is said that a certain minister of this city, who is radical on the slavery question, actually wrote a letter to Gov. Wise, soon after the conviction of John Brown, begging the privilege of taking Brown's place on the gallows. He set forth that Brown was a hero, and his life should be spared for future brave deeds. If that could be done, he (the minister) was ready to sacrifice himself, and not very well pleased with the answer of Gov. Wise, which was to the effect that it was out of his power to save the life of John Brown, but if the minister was very anxious to be hanged, and would come to Virginia, the Governor would try to have him accommodated .- Cincinnati Times, 4th.
